

Tell Me About It

- 1 Think of an information book you have read.
- 2 Imagine you are going to write an informational book.
- 3 What could you write about?

Name That Genre

- 1 Which genre best describes your book?
- 2 Pretend that you are the author and rewrite a scene or chapter in any way you like.

What's it to You

- 1 How does your book make you feel?
- 2 Can you relate the story's message to your own life?

Moral of Story

- 1 What is the moral of your story?
- 2 Do you think this is an important lesson?
- 3 What could you write about?

Take it from Me

- 1 Think about something that a character in the book did that you did not agree with.
- 2 Write a letter to this character and tell them what they should have done instead.
- 3 Include what you think would happen if they took your advice?

Map It

- 1 Think about the setting of your story and the important places where much of the action takes place.
- 2 Draw a map of the setting.
- 3 Label the important places where the action takes place.

What a Character!

- 1 If you could be any character from your book, who would you be and why?
- 2 Write a short paragraph explaining your choice.

Facts and Opinions

- 1 Find three facts and three opinions from your book.
- 2 Create a T-Chart to organize the three facts and three opinions from the book.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

- 1 Choose the name of a character from your book and write it vertically on your paper.
- 2 Write a short phrase after each letter that describes the character.

SWEET HOME

- 1 Think about the setting of your book.
- 2 How is the setting different from where you live? How is it similar?
- 3 Create a Venn Diagram to show how the places are similar and different.

PROBLEM SOLVING

- 1 What is the conflict in your book?
- 2 How did the characters resolve the conflict?
- 3 Do you think they did a good job? What might you have done differently?

STILL CURIOUS

- 1 What questions do you have after finishing your book?
- 2 Write them down and research their answers when possible.